Women in Pensions Network

Connections That Count.

2020

Virtual Conference with Libby Gill

The Women in Pensions Network is the premier nonprofit organization for women in the retirement plan industry.

According to McKinsey's Lean In, women are losing ground in the pandemic. If companies act now to build a more equal workplace, they can curtail women from leaving their jobs or downshifting their careers.

Now more than ever, we need to help companies in the retirement plan industry advance diversity and opportunities for women in the workplace on all levels.

That's why WiPN is leading a proprietary, groundbreaking study focused exclusively on women in the retirement plan industry. Results available in early 2021 can help lead to actionable workplace strategies.
